EVENTS: battles, deaths, injuries.

More than 1200 men from Olmsted County fought in the Civil War, with some of them serving in units that fought in the U.S. Dakota War of 1862, listed below.

Some of the Olmsted County men may have been in the unit commanded by Capt. John Marsh at the attack at Redwood Ferry or at Fort Ridgely.

A stockade names Buck Stockade was built to protect settlers.
